The Science of Health!

Every Man his own Physician.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

—AND—

Holloway's Ointment.

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The stomach is the great center which influences the health or discase of the system—abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, etc. The bowels sympathize by costiveness, diarrhœa and Dysentery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent. To these the Ointment is especially antagonistic; its modus operandi is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years' standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions of the Skin,

Arising from a bad state of the blood, or chronic diseases, are eradicated and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

Female Complaints,

Whether in the young or old, married or single at the dawn of Womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation. They are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stuborn diseases is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emolient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases: Bunions, burns, chapped hands, chilblains, fistula, gout, lumbago, mercurial eruptions, piles, rheumatism, ringworm, salt-rheum, scalds, skin diseases, swelled glands, sore legs, sore breasts, sore heads, sore throats, sores of all kinds, sprains, stiff joints, tetter, ulcers, venereal sores and wounds of all kinds.

CAUTION.—See that the words "Holloway, New York and London," appear as a watermark on every leaf of the book of directions which enfolds each box or pot. No others are genuine. A handsome reward given for information leading to the detection of counterfeiters of the medicines and venders of the deceptive articles, knowing them to be such. Sold at the manufactory, No. 80 Maiden Lane, and by druggists and medicine dealers throughout the world. A great saving by taking the large sizes. Full instructions with every box or pot. f6-1y

I Love You.

I love you—'tis the simplest way
The thing I feel to tell;
Yet, if I told you all the day,
You'd never guess how well.
You are my comfort and my light,
My very life you seem;
I think of you all day—all night
'Tis but of you I dream.

There's pleasure in the slightest word
That you can speak to me;
My soul is like the Æolian chord,
And vibrates still to thee;
I never read the love-song, yet,
So thrilling, fond, or true—
But in my beating heart I've met
Some kindred thoughts of you.

I bless the shadow on your face,
The light upon your hair;
I like to sit for hours and trace
The passing changes there;
I love to hear your voice's tone,
Although you should not say
A single word to dream upon
When that had died away.

Oh! you are kindly as the beam
That warms where'er it plays;
And you are gentle as the gleam
Of happy future days;
And you are strong to do the right,
And swift the wrong to flee;
And if you were not half so bright,
You're all the world to me.

A Real Hero.

Two weeks ago, on board an English steamer, a little ragged boy, aged nine years, was discovered on the fourth day of the outward voyage from Liverpool to New York, and carried before the first mate, whose duty it was to deal with such cases. When questioned as to the object of his being stowed away and who brought him on board, the boy, who had a beautiful sunny face and eyes that looked like the very mirror of truth, replied that his step-father did it, because he could not afford to keep him, nor to pay his passage out to Halifax, where he had an aunt that was well off, and to whose house he was going. The mate did not believe the story, in spite of the winning face and truthful accents of the boy. He had seen too much of stow-aways to be easily deceived by them, he said; and it was his firm conviction that the boy had been brought on board and provided with food by the sailors. The little fellow was very roughly handled in consequence. Day by day he was questioned and requestioned, but always with the same result. He did not know a sailor on board, and his father alone had secreted him and given him the food which he ate.

At last the mate, wearied by the boy's persistence in the same story, and perhaps a little anxious to inculpate the sailors, seized him one day by the collar and dragging him to the fore, told him that unless he confessed the truth in ten minutes from that time he would hang him on the yard arm. He then made him sit down under it on the deck. All around him were the passengers and sailors of the middy watch, and in front of him stood the inexorable mate, with his chronometer in his hand, and the other officers of the ship by his side. It was the finest sight, said our informant, that we had ever beheld—to see the pale, proud, sorrowful face of that noble boy, his head erect, his beautiful eyes bright through the teers that suffused them. When eight minutes had fled, the mate told him he had but two minutes to live, and advised him to speak the truth and save his life; but he replied, with the utmost simplicity and sincerity, by asking the mate if he might pray.

The mate said nothing, but nodded his head, and turned as pale as a ghost, and trembled like a reed in the wind. And there, all eyes turned upon him, this brave and noble little fellow, this poor waif whom society owned not, and whose own stepfather could not care for him—there he knelt with clasped hands and eyes upraised to heaven, while he repeated audibly the Lord's Prayer, and besought Jesus to take him to heaven.

Our informant adds that there then occurred a scene as of Pentecost. Sobs broke from strong, hard hearts, as the mate sprang forward to the boy and clasped him to his bosom, and kissed him and blessed him, and told him how sincerely he believed his story, and how glad he was that he had been brave enough to face death and be willing to sacrifice life rather than tell a lie.

LORD AND LADY BYRON.—It was wrong for her to live with him any longer, though the conduct which led to this belief she kept a secret from the world; but in spite of all, in spite of misrepresentation and abuse and calumny, she loved him still. She loved him to the last, with a love which it was not in his power to destroy. She gloried in his fame, and she would not interfere between him and the public who adored him, any more than she would permit the public judge between him and her. As we have said her love endured to the last. It was her fortune which gave him the means of pursuing his mode of life abroad. He spent the utmost shilling of her property that the law gave him while he lived; and he left away from her every shilling that he could deprive her of by his will; and what the course of life was, which he thus supported, he himself has left on record. Yet, after all this, the interview which she had with his servant, after his death, shows the depth of passion which lay cancealed under her calm reserve. It will be remembered that when Byron felt himself to be dying he sent for his man, Fletcher, and desired him to "Go to Lady Byron, and—" Here his utterance became unintelligible, till he said: "You will tell her this," and Fletcher was obliged to reply: "I have not heard one syllable that you have been saying." "Good God!" exclaimed the dying man; but it was too late for more. Fletcher did "go to Lady Byron;" but during the whole interview she walked up and down the room trying to stifle her sobs and obtain power to ask the questions which were surging in her heart. She could not speak, and he left her.—Miss Martineau.

REALLY.—The Sacramento Record says: "The charges of corruption and extravagance of Republican officials, are not altogether unfounded." Really, do you think so, sweet innocent? Has not some vile Copperhead been poisoning your mind? Surely patriots wont steal, and all Republican officials are patriots.—Sonoma Democrat.

A BRAZILIAN savant has discovered that men were on the banks of the Amazon 20 thousand years ago.

What we Eat and Drink.

Science has done a great deal for human comfort, for which human beings ought to be dutifully grateful; but science has done some things which we cannot find it in our hearts to thank it for. What business has science to break in upon our innocent and ancient enjoyments, and make us unhappy by demonstrating that they involve horrors which we never suspected before? When ignorance is bliss, why should science insist on imparting a knowledge which destroys the bliss? A thirsty man takes a glass of water to refresh his warm and wearied body. Water is the fluid he has drank from his childhood; it is the fluid which his benefactors back to the primeval pair, have regarded as an agent and type of purity and innocence. It is the very substance the weary man needs and longs for. But as he raises it to his lips, science thrusts its microscope to his eye, and reveals to his startled vision a picture of horror that causes him to shudder. That clear and sparkling fluid has become a huge ocean of animated monsters, rivaling in their colossal proportions, in the hideousness of their appearance, and in the havoc of their mortal combats, the prodigious fauna of the pre-Adamite world. They grapple with each other, they writhe and wrestle in desperate strife, they are wounded, they bleed, they are slain, or are swallowed. The picture is not visible to the naked eye, for these disgusting infusoria are inconceivably minute; but science proves that they are there. Is it a wonder, then, that the pleasure of drinking water is ever after marred by the obtruding reflection that the drinker is only swallowing a menagerie of fighting monsters? Take another article of universal necessity and use—sugar. We cannot dispense with it, and we have hitherto considered it the cheapest and most innocent of our luxuries. But the microscopists tell us that raw sugar is the home of a class of even larger and more unlovely monsters than those revealed in water. Their scientific name is accarus sacchari, and they are as ugly as their title, great hairy beetles, with eight legs each, and a hook to each foot, and a scissors-shaped proboscis jutting from their heads. When seen through a microscope, they, too, are found engaged in combat, rearing on their hind feet, and crushing each other's limbs and bodies with those terrible proboscises. It does not add to the complacency of our saccharine repasts to be told that there are 280,000 of these animals in every pound of raw sugar. Think what an enormous amount of animated nature will be swallowed by a family that consumes a barrel of New Orleans sugar in the course of a year! These insects are most numerous in the poorer and darker qualities of sugar, and are not to be found at all in the refined article, being eliminated by the refining process. It is better, therefore, to use the purer qualities of sugar, which, besides being more wholesome, are quite as cheap in the end as the raw and coarse article. Nor are water and sugar the only commodities in which human life are to be found. The air, sometimes, is full of minute microscopic insects; the strong cheese, which is so great a favorite with the frequenters of German beer saloons, is a notable example of animated nature, and the pork, which the Germans are in the habit of eating half-cooked, is, at times, the home of a parasite that produces death when taken into the human system.

A ROMANCE OF TRUE LOVE.—The death of a Miss Jackson, of St. Louis, on Thursday of last week, was followed by that of Mr. W. D. Hudgens, the Saturday following. The former peacefully breathed her last after a long and painful illness; the latter in a paroxysm of grief burst a blood vessel and died almost instantly. The deceased were betrothed, and the consummation of their dreams of love had been delayed from time to time until finally, Miss Jackson was prostrated by sickness.

Unwilling, even then, to be debarred her presence, Mr. H. was admitted to the sick room, where none were more attentive to the every want of the sufferer than himself, so far as the delicacy of his position would permit. A sister of Miss Jackson was for days and nights the sharer of his watchfulness. Her feeble nature, however, sunk under the burden of fatigue and sleepless apprehension, which she vainly struggled to sustain, and at last Mr. Hudgens was left alone, with barely the assistance of a servant. The object of his solicitude and devotion, day by day became more feeble. He scarcely left her bedside. Sleep became a stranger to his eyes, and even food was put away by him. But even such devotion could not turn the penetrating barb of death, and finally the eyes of the sufferer closed forever on the tearful face ever above her, her hand grew rigid in death while yet in the warm clasp of his to whom it was so shortly to be given in life and love. This was on Thursday. On Friday the remains of Miss Jackson were followed to the grave. He who had ever been present by her bed was by her bier. His heart went down into the grave with the sleeper. The day following the burial, the fatigue to which Mr. Hudgens had subjected himself began to overcome him. He sank prostrated on his bed, and giving way to the poignancy of his feelings, burst a blood vessel, and in less than five minutes his heart had ceased to suffer, for it was cold forever. The next day he, too, was followed to the tomb and placed side of his betrothed—St. Louis Times.

REBELS ARE GOOD TO FIGHT, HA!—Where be these rebels, now? we may well ask, when the Washington Chronicle, edited by Forney, a notorious parasite, in calculating the strength which our government would have in case of a war with England, says:

"And if the worst comes to the worst, no force will be more potent than that represented by the men who fought in the Confederate army, and who wished success to the Confederate cause."

Commenting on the above, the Alexandria Gazette says: "Ah! have you found that out? Do you acknowledge that in case of war you would gladly and willingly rely upon the loyalty and courage of those who are now disfranchised, harrassed and oppressed, and pronounced to be, in peace, disloyal and untrustworthy?"

THEY have at Portland, Maine, what is called a "Widow's Wood" Society." Who ever heard of a widow that wouldn't?

Farmers, Read This.

If there is a farmer in Yolo county, or any where else, whose eye takes in the caption of this article, who will not read the following extract from a speech made by Col. D. A. Robertson, to the Agricultural State Fair of Michigan, and act upon the truths he utters, and combine with others for the protection of their own pursuit, ought to have his plows taken from him, and be compelled to cultivate his soil with the hoe:

With the exception of husbandry, every money-making interest, in this our age of money, is thoroughly organized, and ever ready for aggressive or defensive action, as the occasion may require, whether in legislative halls, in boards of direction, or in the market place.

Our farmers are the most important working population of the country, and produce three-fourths of its productive wealth. Out of their toil and products are directly or indirectly obtained, most of the taxes, and yet they are at the mercy of all other interests. A projected measure that would transfer millions from the profits of agriculture into others' hands, may be resolved upon by half a dozen wealthy gentlemen, of elegant enterprise, seated in a private parlor, or around a board of direction, without exciting any more concern among our farmers than if the subject matter related to China or Japan.

The reason is our farming population is cut up into isolated fragments, and are beaten in detail, in politics and in everything else.

Such facts as have been adduced show the importance and the necessity of organized societies of farmers, and like the new order, the Patrons of Husbandry, with frequent meetings and wide extended fraternity, for collecting and disseminating valuable information, and for mutual instruction and defence. Unlike the rural peasantry of Europe, our farmers own the land they cultivate. They are capitalists, freeholders, citizens and rulers of the State and Nation. They are, or ought to be, men of thought, reading and useful knowledge, as well as of manual work.

All other interests are armed and constantly on a war footing. Among the powerful nations of Europe, when one arms, all must arm. So it is in all communities. When every interest is cared for, when every interest is prepared for defense, all are cared for. Then there is justice, equity, peace and prosperity for all.

GRANT AND LEE.—A correspondent of the New York Herald gives the following account of the recent much-talked-of interview between Grant and Lee:

From a friend of Gen. Lee I ascertained that the visit paid by the General to the President during his sojourn in Washington was as short as the interview between them was pithy. The friend claimed to have received the account from Gen. Lee himself. It appears that Gen. Lee, according to his own representations, that as the President had invited him to visit him, he could do nothing less than call upon him and thank him for the invitation, and this is all he did. The following conversation occurred between the President and Gen. Lee, which lasted about five minutes:

General Lee—Mr. President, I called today, in accordance with your kind invitation, with my friends here, Mrs. and Mr. Taggart, of Baltimore, to thank you for the honor you have done me.

President—I did wish, General, to have a somewhat lengthy conversation with you in regard to matters relating to your section of the country, if such will be agreeable to you.

Gen. Lee—Mr. President, I would much prefer that you would not take my views and opinions as representing those of the people of Virginia and the South, and I do not think I could give any useful information on the subject. If you will excuse me, Mr. President, I will repeat my thanks for your invitation, and bid you good day.

EXCITEMENT AND SHORT LIFE.—The following from an unknown writer, is worthy of observation. It accords with facts:

The deadliest foe to a man's longevity is unnatural and unreasonable excitement. Every mau is born with a certain stock of vitality, which cannot be increased, but which may be husbanded or expended rapidly, as he deems best. Within certain limits he has his choice to live fast or slow, to live abstemiously or intensely, to draw his little amount of life over a large space or condense it into a narrow one; but, when his stock is exhausted, he has no more. He who lives abstemiously, who avoids all stimulants and takes light exercise, never overtasks himself, indulges in no exhausting passions, feeds his mind and heart on no exciting material, has no debilitating pleasures, lets nothing ruffle his temper, keeps his accounts with God and man duly squared up, is sure, barring accidents, to spin out his life to the longest limit which it is possible to attain; while he who lives intensely, who feeds on high-seasoned food, whether mental or material, fatigues his body or brain by hard labor, exposes himself to inflammatory diseases, seeks continual excitement, gives loose rein to his passion, frets at every trouble, and enjoys little repose, burns the candle at both ends, and is sure to shorten his days.

PARALYSIS.—We find the following in an exchange, and give it for what it is worth. It may do good, but can do no harm:

We lately met a gentleman who, although he walked with perfect ease, said he had been almost a hopeless paralytic, but had been substantially cured by the use of an air pump. The theory of the cure, and the application of the instrument, were as follows: Paralysis is produced by the failure of some of the organs of life to perform their functions. They need recuperating. He applied a cup or receiver to the part affected, and by means of the pump he removed the pressure of the external atmosphere. There was then a rush of air internally, as much as the clogged condition of the system would admit, towards the vacuum produced by the pump. The blood was carried along by the air, and by mere mechanical force made to circulate in the affected limb, which thus recovered its vigor and activity.

FOURTH OF JULY.—Time in its ceaseless whirl has brought us in close proximity to another anniversary of American Independence, and, as yet, no steps have been taken by the citizens of Woodland for its proper observance. Why this indifference to an event which electrified the friends of free government throughout the world? Is it a general decadence of the fires of patriotism which glowed in the bosoms of our heroic ancestry on that proud occasion? Alas! we fear that it is even so. This fear is based upon the fact that, in less than a century after our revolutionary fathers had proclaimed to the world through the Declaration of Independence that "Governments are instituted among men, deriving their JUST powers from the CONSENT of the governed," and that "it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it, and to institute a new government * * to effect their safety and happiness," over a million of Americans, in control of the government established by the secession of our fathers from the parent government, took up arms and waged a war which has no parallel in history for atrocity, against ten millions of their own brethren who sought safety for their domestic institutions in the manner pointed out in the Declaration of Independence, and now hold them, disfranchised, in a government against their "CONSENT!" How can men, guilty of such stupendous wickedness, celebrate the Fourth of July? Has God Almighty changed with the revolving years since 1776?—has Truth become Falsehood, and Patriotism turned to Toryism, since that eventful period? If they have not, then it requires a cheek harder than brass for a man who has sided in placing the gallant people of the South under the iron heel of tyranny, and now mantains a military guard over them, the bayonets upheld by negroes, to profess a devotion for the principles contained in the Declaration of Independence. With the eye of God Almighty upon him, and in the presence of an intelligent audience, all conscious of his outrageous inconsistency, his soul would be tormented. Nature's laws would have to undergo a change before he could feel natural on such an occasion. For such men the Fourth of July exists no longer.

THE YOLO MAIL.—The editor of this paper will not accept of our proposition to ignore personalities and indecencies, and confine himself to legitimate subjects of newspaper discussion. Billingsgate is his natural food—he could not subsist on any other. We are well aware that it is his policy to provoke attack, so that he can manufacture a little sympathy with a certain class of his own party, but we shall not accommodate him so far. It will be necessary, however, to correct some of its misrepresentations and falsehoods, lest silence regarding them may be construed into tacit admission. Of this character is his attempt to create a prejudice against us in the minds of females of northern birth by garbling an article written by us for the Amador Dispatch, in 1864. That article simply spoke of an article which appeared in the New Hampshire Patriot, and was extensively copied, in which the editor of that paper said he was informed by Rev. Liberty Billings, chaplain of a negro regiment stationed at Port Royal, South Carolina, that of the 300 Gibeonite women who went out to teach the negroes how to read and to pray, 62 of them gave birth to mulatto infants, thirteen months after their arrival. The editor of the Mail says we accuse northern females of impurity, and to sustain the charge he quotes from the article alluded to, suppressing the authority upon which it was based, that of a northern clergyman to a northern editor. Having thus exposed the attempt to propagate a lie at our expense, we leave Mr. Hammond solus in his dirty occupation, away from which, he would be as much out of his natural element as the repulsive worm removed from the putrid carcass on which it feeds.

"PROPRIETY" AND "DECORUM."—For Hammond to talk of "propriety" and "decorum," and words "unfit to appear in the Mail," is enough to convulse the entire brute creation with laughter. It is like a penitentiary convict discoursing of honesty, or a courtezan expatiating on chastity. "Nance, where's the strainer-rag?" We omit Nance's reply, but the old lady told her to "go and take it off, and go down to the branch and give it a cold-water wranch, for she did most abominably despise nastness."

WE HOPE NOT.—It is reported by those professing a knowledge of the financial condition of the concern, that the Yolo Mail will shortly give up the ghost. For our own financial welfare we hope not. If the establishment was to pass into the hands of decent Republicans, much of the patronage we now receive would cease. If a small donation will keep the thing alive, it is at the service of the proprietor.

CHANGE THE ADDRESS.—Why does the Marysville Appeal refuse to send in exchange to us when it comments on our articles? We did not receive the issues of Sunday and Monday. Will the proprietors change the address from News to DEMOCRAT?

WHEAT.—On the third instant, in San Francisco, wheat was selling at $1 55@1 65. Barley, $1 30@1 40.

Who is Responsible?

Powers, of the Solano Herald, pitches into our remarks on the subject of "Taxation," and says it is caused solely by the "enormous cost of compelling Democrats to obey the laws of their own enacting," and that "if exact justice were done, every dollar of the cost of suppressing the Democratic rebellion would be wrung from the coffers of those who inaugurated it or in any manner sustained it—from the Democratic party—and not one cent from those who sympathized with and sustained the Government." If justice were done the exact reverse of this would take place, and every man who aided in engendering and prosecuting the war against the South, would be strung upon a gallows as high as human ingenuity could rear it. This, Mr. Powers, is the difference in our opinions. Now, let us revert to the primal cause ot the war, and trace it up to the inauguration of the "rebellion," as it is falsely termed, and leave it to public opinion to judge between us, and render verdict.

It is agreed upon between us—because you cannot deny it—that the Constitution framed by our fathers was the only bond that bound the States together, and, being the fundamental law to every American, its violation involved the highest of crimes—in truth destroyed its binding obligation and absolved all the parties to it, leaving them in the full possession of their original powers and sovereignty. This is the opinion of all the commentators on this instrument, and no two were more emphatic in the expression of this opinion than James Madison and Daniel Webster. As unwholesome as this truth is to you, Mr. Powers, you have not the hardihood to deny it—you dare not do so. Well, this much being admitted, the Constitution guaranteed domestic slavery, in three distinct clauses, particularly in that which required Congress to legislate for the return of "persons held to service or labor," who might escape from one State into another—"to be delivered up to the party to whom such service might be due." The validity of such a law was recognized by Washington, and the first one was passed at his recommendation, under his administration. The people of the Northern States, possessing the preponderance in Congress, the first session after the government was organized, they commenced a system which engendered hatred, malice and revenge between the two sections. This system was the system of protective tariffs, which took money from the pockets of the Southern people and put it in the pockets of Northern capitalists. In fifty years, as shown by the statistics of Congress, this system plundered the people of the South of over one thousand millions of dollars for the support of Northern manufactures, for which she received not a cent of benefit. After the North was compelled to recede from its oppressions by the action of South Carolina, her malcontents pitched upon slavery as a new source of agitation and sectional conflict. How persistently this wicked course was pursued, in violation of their constitutional obligations, all the world is informed. Abolition emmissaries were scattered through the South to excite insurrection, to poison, burn, and steal, until their fiendishness culminated in the John Brown raid into Virginia. For forty years the people of the South remonstrated against this war upon the Constitution and upon themselves. Their remonstrances were met by new aggressions, and finally the law of Congress for the rendition of fugitive slaves was nullified by the Legislatures of all the non-slaveholding States enacting that it should not be executed within their limits, under the pains and penalties of heavy fines and imprisonment in the penitentiaries, the terms of imprisonment ranging from five to fifteen years. In addition to this the Republican party, avowing their determination to abolish slavery, had just elected their President—and the Southern States, alarmed for their safety, sought protection for their institutions by peacefully withdrawing, and "establishing new guards for their future security," as the Declaration of Independence guaranteed them the right.

Now, Mr. Powers, we have brought you face to face with history, and if you are not wholly imbruted, you must cower in confusion under the gaze of the public, before whom we have arraigned you. Look at the facts we have stated. Not one of them can be disputed. They convict you of colluding with a party to overthrow the government which they were sworn to support; of conspiring to rob and oppress the people of ten States, who adhered faithfully to the Constitution, while you and your party disregarded it. You, who shout "traitor" from a traitorous throat, as early as 1850, nullified a law of Congress, passed to carry into effect a clause of the Constitution, and set the Government at defiance. You consummate traitor, hypocrite, liar, thief, murderer, perjurer, violator of female chastity, incendiary, and desecrator of churches and the graves of revolutionary patriots, what have you to say to this? All the crimes here enumerated were perpetrated by the "gallant boys in blue," and you, having endorsed and aided the war, become equally guilty with the actual perpetrators. And you admit that the present rate of taxation is "extraordinary," and should "be wrung from the coffers of those who inaugurated it." Then from you and your party, you characterless traitor and thief, would the money come, if you were worth it, for we have shown that you were the authors of the war. We have shown that you wickedly destroyed the only bond that bound the States together, by annulling the laws of Congress, and then waged a brutal war against the innocent party, in a manner so wholly savage and barbarian as to cause foreign governments threaten to suspend diplomatic intercourse with our government unless it was stopped. You and your party caused all the woes of the country, and relentless history will send you down the dismal canon of infamy branded as the worst scoundrels that ever disgraced human form and features.

The Tariff.

Farmers of California, and Yolo County particularly, we wish to call your attention to the fact that you are robbed—robbed is the word—of more than one third of what you produce on your farms, not one cent of which ever returns to you. This amount is taken from you, through the operations of a protective tariff, to swell the profits of a few capitalists in the Eastern States—to make men, already rich, richer. Did you ever ask yourselves what right Congress has to legislate for the the protection of the industry of any particular class of citizens at the expense of all other classes? Our government was framed by co-equal States, for the common protection and benefit of all, and not to afford special privileges to any; but it is now administered for the benefit of a class, and that class is the capitalists of the Eastern States—it has ceased to be a government of equal rights, as its framers designed, and has become one of privilege. Do you ask for proof of this? We point you to the Eastern manufacturer and to the bondholder—the one is protected by a tax levied by Congress on every article which he manufactures, and which you have to pay, and the other is exempted from taxation for the support of government, which increases your taxes, or, in other words, the government compels you to pay your own taxes and his too. Is this equal rights?—is it justice? All this is in violation of the fundamental law, the Constitution, which declares that "all taxation shall be equal," and is downright robbery, yet it is submitted to by the great American people with the docility of asses, when their manhood requires of them to spurn—aye, kick any man belonging to the Republican party, who fosters this system, who asks them for their vote. Suppose a combination of capitalists in California were to contribute money and operate through "lobbyists" at the next session of our State Legislature, at Sacramento, bribe members and secure the passage of a law levying a tax upon the people at large, to the extent that they are now taxed by the protective tariff, for the benefit of this combination of capitalists, would it not arouse tax-payers to the verge of revolution, and cause them to repudiate the party who imposed the tax? Now, the Congress of the United States has no more right to the exercise of such a power than the Legislature of this State, yet the abracadabra which clusters around the foolish, cowardly idea of the supremacy of the Federal Government, reconciles them to the robbery. The Democratic party have ever opposed a protective tariff, while the Republican party have as zealously advocated the system—the one has favored equal taxation, the other unequal taxation.

For the information of farmers we quote from the tariff-bill now before us the amount they are taxed on agricultural impiements. On every three dollars expended by farmers for farming utensils, they pay one dollar and five cents bonus to the manufacturer of the articles. Think of this with composure, if you can, you producers of the staff of life. On bags and sacks, into which you put your grain, you are taxed steeply. For every four dollars you pay for these articles you pay one dollar and twenty cents to the manufacturer. Take the bills of your merchants and figure up the whole amount you have to pay for farming implements and for bags and sacks, and by the simple operation of division you will have before your eyes the sum your political party make you pay to make richer a class of men already rich. Ask yourself what protection your industry receives from government, and what reply can you make? To the amount you are taxed by the tariff, in that degree are you a slave to the Eastern capitalist. And mind you, we have taken but two articles from the long list before us. There is no article used in your family but what you are taxed upon. We give it to you in broken doses, believing you would not be able to stand it all at once. We have a U. S. Senator to elect at the next session of our Legislature, who will have a vote upon all future tariff swindles, and you will have to elect members of the Legislature this fall who will elect this Senator. Now you may vote for your tariff, negro-suffrage party candidates, if you will, but never after so suicidal an act call yourself an American FREEMAN, superior to a negro.

AFRAID.—A friend at our elbow says Hammond has not been seen on the streets for four months—that he is afraid those he has maligned will chastise him—and that he takes a back street when he goes to and from his office, and carries a double-barreled gun over his shoulder and a revolver strapped to each hip, and that if he meets any one on the way, he steps aside, comes to a present-arms, and watches until he is out of pistol range. This is a bad condition of things for our neighbor. We advise him to ask a general pardon, and pray that amnesty be granted. We will endorse his petition and ask our friends to forgive him. His imagination will then no more distort inanimate objects into bloody Copperheads lurking round his house seeking his destruction. Have pity on Hammond's nerves, and forgive him, O, Copperheads!

PENRY'S OPINION OF HAMMOND.—The Amador Dispatch contains the following notice, which we transfer to our columns for the edification of our neighbor, U. Y. Hammond. The article has been copied into two Republican papers, and we now clip from one:

FUN AHEAD.—We see it stated that L. P. Hall is about to assume the editorial management of the Yolo DEMOCRAT, in which case we shall expect to see some lively editorial sparring between him and Bombastes Furioso Hammond, of the Yolo Mail. Hall is far superior to Hammond in a common sense point of view, but Hammond makes up the deficiency by being one of the most inveterate blackguards in the State, which, we believe, is generally accepted by the members of his party as a mark of superior ability.

"THE NEW NATION."—The telegraph informs us that at the municipal election in Washington the negroes swept everything before them—elected every officer. They took possession of the polls, and beat the whites away from them. The police attempted to restore order. Several were killed and wounded. Behold your work, Republicans! The Capital of this great country under negro rule. Wonder if Southern rebels will not be charged with this disorder.

LUCKY GRANT.—The train of cars carrying the President and his party from Washington to New York, on Thursday, was thrown off the track near Annapolis Junction, and eight persons injured, Grant escaping.

THE HYPOCRITE COMES.—William H. Seward is now on his way to San Francisco and Sitka. He will be in Sacramento Tuesday.

DOWN ON HIM.—The Irish of San Francisco are down on Father Alemany for employing Chinamen.

THE LATE SHOOTING—THE BOY'S STORY.—Dr. Strong, the Hospital physician, has given us a full and complete statement of the late unfortunate affair, including the boy's version of the occurrence. The young man is eighteen years of age, was born in San Francisco, and lived there until he was twelve years of age, when his father moved to Illinois. About four weeks since the young man returned to California, and had been in Yolo county, on Willow slough, four days previous to the shooting. He worked a day and a half for parson Allen and started on the road to Woodland in search of employment, when he was overtaken by a man on horseback, who gave him a letter and requested him to leave it at the house of Powers, telling him where the house was situated. The young man, ignorant of the contents of the letter, and not knowing Powers, gave it to his son and pursued his journey. He walked about a mile and a half when he met another boy and stopped to talk with him. While thus engaged Powers and his son rode up. Powers presented his gun at the youth and told him to throw up his hands, remarking, "Damn you, I'll fix so you won't hand any more letters, or steal any more chickens at night." The youth told him he was mistaken in the person, that he was a stranger in the country and knew nobody. The words had hardly escaped his lips when Powers fired, at a distance of five paces, with a double barrelled shot gun, loaded with goose shot, the contents taking effect in the left arm, midway between the elbow and the shoulder joint. The shooting took place at 3 o'clock, P. M., and he was brought to the hospital, a distance of six miles, and his arm amputated at 12 o'clock, M., by Dr. Strong, assisted by Dr. Geo. H. Jackson. His condition is very critical. Dr. Strong says twenty-nine shot passed through the arm, leaving it dangling by the skin on each side, and entered the left side over the fourth rib. Some of them passed through and dropped down into the cavity of the chest, while others ranged round and lodged in the muscle of the back, near the spine, partially paralyzing that part of the body. The internal hemorrhage and inflammation have forced the heart under the sternum, where its pulsations are now felt. The functions of the left lung are entirely suspended. Only six of the twenty-nine that entered his body have been extracted. Dr. Strong thinks his recovery very doubtful, the danger from internal hemorrhage being great. The youth is quite intelligent and bears up under his sufferings and misfortune with heroic fortitude.

UNCIVILIZED—UNCHRISTIAN.—The present condition of the Woodland cemetery is a positive reflection upon the people of the county, but more particularly the Board of Supervisors, who, possessing the power, have done nothing to remedy that condition. It is un-inclosed, and is open to the inroads of hogs, horses and cattle, making sad havoc, trampling upon the graves, rubbing down enclosures and nearly prostrating the marble slabs erected by friends and relatives. On Monday evening last we paid a visit to this final resting place of mortality, and found it in the worst possible condition. On several of the graves hogs had rooted, and on two or three they had made their beds. Dogs had scratched deep holes on others. But this tells not half. A stranger on his advent would at once ask if this town and county were the abodes of civilized men. There is nothing that more strongly marks the character of a Christian people than the order in which they keep their cemeteries—and in this vernal season of the year, when everywhere else in California and the Atlantic States we read of the adornment of graves with flowers by the hand of affection or of friendship, the contrast of the Woodland cemetery with such places is crushing, is overwhelming, and covers with shame the people who permit it. The Board of Supervisors have the power to make an appropriation for its inclosure, every tax-payer expects them to give their attention to such matters and if they neglect longer to do so they, themselves ought to be superseded with a vengeance.

DEATH OF A GOOD WOMAN.—MRS. Eliza E. Dexter, wife of our esteemed fellow citizen, T. J. Dexter, died on Sunday evening last after an illness of over five months. Mrs. Dexter was pre-eminent for all womanly virtues, and her demise has wrung with grief every one in this community who knew her. Her kindness of heart while living was a theme of universal comment. It beat responsive to all human suffering, and she was ever found at the side of the afflicted, to minister to thier wants and to cheer their drooping spirits. She was a Christian in the true sense of the word—by action as well as profession. She was a "Daughter of Rebekah" and a Good Templar, and during her illness received every attention that could be bestowed. She was the mother of four lovely daughters, and the last words audible from her lips were for her husband to keep them ever under his protecting care. She has gone to that bourne from which there is no return, but the remembrance of her virtues will be laurelled in the minds and hearts of all who knew her, until they too pass away. The large concourse of citizens who followed her to the grave testified the esteem in which she was held. May the turf rest lightly upon the bosom of this excellent woman.

GREEN CORN.—Our excellent friend, J. H. Hall, has presented us with a mess of green corn, the ears full and well developed, the grains juicy and sweet. Mr. Hall must have planted earlier or cultivated better than other farmers. We had no expectation of seeing corn perfected for two weeks to come. Many thanks, Mr. Hall.

PREACHING.—Eld. G. J. Lucas will preach at the College Chapel at 11 o'clock to-morrow. Also preaching on Monday evening, at the same place, by Eld. P. R. Burnett.

DENTISTRY.—In one respect the people of our town and county are highly favored, and that is in having located in their midst two Dentists who have mastered their business and understand it as a science, with all the implements and appliances which the science up to this date has invented. We allude to Drs. Prather and Plomteaux, who have their office in the second story of the Bank building. By the use of nitrus oxide gas and Rhigoline Spray, they operate upon and extract teeth without pain, and without the least damage or deleterious effect. Their rooms are models of neatness and comfort. Their reception room approaches Oriental grandeur. The teeth are an important part of the human system and have much to do with the happiness and longevity of individuals. If those having teeth the least defective could only be conscious of the importance of an operation by a scientific Dentist, happy would it be for them! In no one thing in life is the truism "a stitch in time saves nine" better illustrated than in Dentistry.

SERENADE.—On Thursday night, at 12 o'clock the Woodland band of music serenaded young couple at the Plantr's Hotel, who are now reveling in the inexpressible delights of a honey-moon only a week old. The band came softly inside to the head of the stairs and suddenly the music, in cadences soft, wild and strong, filled every room and rolled along the corriders of the splendid building like the swells of the ocean, dismissing sleep from the eye-lids of every soul. They adjourned to the bar-room of the hotel and for more than an hour wine, music and song flowed together in one mighty river. The Woodland band has the reputation of being the best in the State.

BLACKBERRYING ON THE SABBATH.—We have been informed by several gentlemen who saw the multitude, that between three and four hundred gentlemen and ladies went out to Cache Creek on the last two Sabbaths to pick berries.

GONE TO OREGON.—J. Levi, whose card appears in another column, left on Friday for his new theatre of operations. He leaves a good record behind him for honesty and uprightness of character.

FRUIT.—Call and look at H. U. Ogburn's extensive establishment, where tin-ware is made by the wholesale and retail, and where one million (1,000,000) fruit cans, of all sizes, can be had cheap for cash. *

FOR SALE.—C. Elliott offers for sale a good portable engine, which has been run but one season. It was used last year by Jackson Bros. for running a threshing machine and for sawing wood. *

A GOOD THING.—It is contemplated by an association of young men of Woodland to establish a gymnasium. A competent instructor and a suitable arena will be provided. A good idea.

BATHING.—Nearly every evening parties go out to Cache Creek to bathe in its limpid waters—only 50cts passage in the hacks.

BAKED.—The new editor of the Yolo Democrat, (Long Primer Hall) shows the white feather by begging that the Yolo Mail will discuss "legitimate subjects." Long Primer was not so enamored with "legitimate subjects" while blackguarding the Chico Courant Long Primer has met a little more than his match.—Marysville Appeal.

Now Smith knew he was penning a falsehood when he wrote the above. We have made it a rule, and never deviated from it, to treat with courtesy all brothers of the press until assailed. Smith's tastes and ideas of propriety differ from ours. We edit a paper for the instruction and entertainment of those who read it—we aim to elevate the standard of morals and to promote order, harmony and good feeling among the members of the community in which we reside. The columns of the Appeal show that its editor labors not to such ends. He has made assaults, in the most unbecoming language, against the Methodist Church South, whose members everywhere are noted for their unexceptionable morality. Does Smith recollect his unmanly assault of our friend Thomas, when he was confined in Alcatras, and was powerless to defend himself?—and does he recollect what occurred afterwards, when Thomas, accompanied by a friend, went after him with a twisted cow-skin in his hand? Smith's estimation of a good editor is measured by the quantity of billingsgate he sends abroad weekly. As regards the Yolo Mail, it is universally known that billingsgate, vituperation and personal abuse, form its only aliment. We wish to avoid everything of this character—we do not wish to render the paper over which we preside an unwelcome visitor to the firesides of families, or to minister to a diseased mental appetite—therefore we proposed to avoid such collision with the Mail, and expected, in return, the approbation of all genteel people. This guerdon we have already received, but Smith reveals his animus by crying out for scandal. We have never yet reproached ourself for want of ability to cope with editors, and know full well that Smith is incapable of putting what little we possess to a test.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ON SEA AND LAND THE GREAT RESTORATIVE. As a remedy for the sea-sickness which besets the voyager on his way to and from California, and for the disorders which assail the unacclimated emigrant in the unhealthy districts of the interior, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will be found equally efficacious. On no part of the continent has the value of this pure vegetable elixir, as a specific for epidemic diseases, been so clearly demonstrated, as in the new States and Territories lying contiguous to the Pacific Ocean. As a means of preventing the distressing and dangerous attacks of fever, and the dysentiric and diarrhœal complaints which are engendered by poison in the air, or by the use of water containing a mineral or vegetable taint inimical to health, it is confessedly superior to any other tonic and alterative in the world. It acts as a preventive agent by strengthening and exhilarating the whole physical organization, and producing a regular habit of body. All that the human system requires to enable it to resist the deleterious effects of malaria, is increased vigor and vital activity, and these are the inevitable results of a course of this celebrated tonic and corrective. It promotes appetite, facilitates digestion, controls the liver, regulates the bowels, braces the nerves, superinduces sound and wholesome sleep, invigorates without exciting the pulse, and imparts buoyancy to the animal spirits. The body and mind toned and cheered by its genial operation, are in a condition to repel all exterior influences which tend to produce disease. Flux, dysentery, bilious remittents, chills, and fever, rheumatism, etc., are almost always caused by atmospheric poison acting upon an unfortified system. Brace up the organism, and cheer the spirits, with this wholesome medicated stimulant, and then neither the malaria generated by the filth of crowded cities, nor the exhalation of new soils, nor the vapid water of a springless region, will be likely to produce any serious consequences. je5-1m

WHAT AN INDIAN SAID OF PLANTATION BITTERS.—A little before the commencement of the buffalo season on the plains this year, two Kiowa chiefs came to Fort Hays, to obtain powder and ball. As they belonged to the "peace party" of the tribe their wish was complied with. One of them expressed a desire for "two, tree, five bottles berry good medicine," but could not remember the name of the article he wanted. It was finally recollected that the winter previously a couple of bottles of Drake's Plantation Bitters had been given to one of the chiefs by an officer of the Fort, and it appeared that the red-skin was eager for more. On asking him what he thought of the cordial he promptly replied that it was "berry bad stuff for Injun to take when no meat in wigwam—it made him so hungry—but berry good when buffalo plenty, 'cause it gave him big appetite, and he eat, eat, eat, till he get fat an' strong." Probably a finer compliment was never paid to the famous vegetable tonic and restorative than this bit of bad English from an unsophisticated Indian. It not only cures indigestion, but imparts, so to speak, a clamorous appetite.

PAIN KILLER.—We beg leave to call the attention of the public to this long celebrated and unrivalled Family Medicine. The Pain Killer is a purely vegetable compound, and while it is a most efficient remedy for Pain, it is perfectly safe medicine even in the most unskillful hands. For summer complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt been more successful in curing the various kinds of Cholera, than any other known remedy, or even the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is ever more or less prevalent, the Pain Killer is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates a sure remedy.

PAIN KILLER, the great family medicine of the age, taken internally, cures Dysentery, Cholera, Diarrhœa, Cramp, and Pain in the Stomach, Bowel Complaints, Painters' Colic, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and Indigestion, Sore Throat, Sudden Colds, Coughs, &c., &c. Used externally, it cures Boils, Felons, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Old Sores, Sprains, Toothache, Pain in the Face, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Frosted Feet, &c., &c., &c. a3-1m.

ELECTRO SILICON.—This curious and valuable substance is confidently claimed to be the BEST ARTICLE ever discovered for cleaning and polishing Gold, Silver and Plated Ware, and all smooth metallic surfaces, of whatever description, including kitchen utensils of tin, copper, brass, steel, etc.

TO HEADS OF FAMILIES.—Are your little ones subject to croup? If so, don't fail to use NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP. A few doses given in time MAY SAVE THE LIFE OF A DARLING CHILD. Do not fail to have it on hand, if you would be safe and free from anxiety.

"IN TIME OF PEACE PREPARE FOR WAR."—So get a bottle of DR. E. COOPER'S UNIVERSAL MAGNETIC BALM, an unequalled preparation for Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Cramp. The instantaneous relief for Burns, Bruises and Sprains.

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

How They Had Him.

When I was young and tender, too,
I had to mind, and had to do
Whatever mother bade me;
She used to have a walnut stick
Which kept me on the double quick,
And that was where she had me.

When older grown, and quite a bean
Among the girls, I used to know
A Miss Precilla Cadmy;
And with the help of smiles and nods
I fell in love at forty rods,
And there is where she had me.

When I was older, say sixteen,
I thought it time to have a queen,
And asked her if she'd wed me;
She said she didn't much object,
Or words something to that effect,
And there was where she had me.

But when, to make the matter straight,
I went up to negotiate
Affairs with Col. Cadmy,
He said he "didn't care to sell,"
He told me that I might go to—well,
And that was where he had me.

I drowned my sorrows in my cup
Until I got my dander up—
(I couldn't have been madder;)
When she proposed that we be one
In spite of Pa, the thing was done,
And that was where I had her.

Two lovely urchins on my knee
I'm proud to say belong to me—
(That is, to me and madam;)
For when we left our native sod,
We spent a year or two abroad—
And there was where we had 'em.

SNAKE POISON.—In the last volume of "Transactions of the Royal Society of Victoria," published at Melbourne, there was an account of Dr. Halford's interesting researches into the nature of the change produced in the blood by the poison of snake bites. The Doctor worked with the microscope, satisfied himself that there was a change, and described it, and has since had an opportunity of testing his theory and his antidote. A man who worked on a railway was bitten by a snake; ere long drowsiness came on; medical assistance was obtained, but by the time it arrived the man was comatose, and his lower extremities were paralyzed. Dr. Halford was then summoned by telegraph; he made an incision in a vein, inserted the point of a syringe, injected ammonia diluted with water, and the effect produced is described as "marvellous and immediate." The man became conscious, steadily recovered, and became quite well. Henceforth let all people who live in districts infected by poisonous snakes, remember that ammonia injected into a vein is a sure remedy.

A GOOD JOKE.—A stranger got off a good joke on one of our prominent livery stable men. Having asked for a horse and buggy, he was informed by the livery man that strangers must be vouched for or identified by some one before horses could be given to them out of that stable. The man asked how much the rig was worth. The reply was $450. He gave that amount to the livery man, took the horse and buggy, and used it and returned them in good order. Having got back his roll of bills the stranger started away, when he was reminded that he had forgotten to pay for the use of the rig. Said the stranger, "Do you take me for a fool? I am not in the habit of paying for the use of my own horse and buggy," and walked off. The livery man won't hear the last of it for some time to come.

THE following hymn is said to be popular among certain circles of colored society in Mississippi:

We's nearer to de Lord
Dan de white folks, and dey knows it;
See de glory gate unbarred;
Walk up, darkies, past de guard;
Bet a dollar he don't close it.

Walk up, darkies, froo de gate;
Hark! de colored angels holler,
Go away, white folks! you's too late;
We's de winnin' color; wait
Till de trumpet sounds to foller.

Hallelujah! t'anks an' praise;
Loug unuff we've borne our crosses;
Now we's de sooperior race;
We's gwine to Hebben afore de bosses.

SUPPOSE IT.—Gen. Grant appointed all the prominent actors in the various gift enterprises gotten up for his benefit to office. To four of his Cabinet appointees he is known to be indebted for valuable presents. In reference to this disreputable business, the N. Y. Sun, the ablest Radical sheet in that city, asks the following question: "Suppose it had been discovered and proven, during the hunt after Andrew Johnson, that he had appointed persons to office who had bestowed on him valuable gifts, would not the impeachment trial have had a different result?"

A POWERFUL PILL.—An itinerant quack doctor in Texas was applied to by one of Colonel Hay's rangers to extract the iron point of an Indian arrow head from his head, where it had been lodged for some time. "I cannot 'stract this, stranger," said the doctor, "bekase to do so would go nigh killing you, but I tell you what I can do—I can give you a pill that will melt it in your head."

A SHREWD GIRL.—That was a shrewd girl and not devoid of sense either, who remarked, when other girls were making fun of her short skirts, and affected to be much shocked at the exhibition thereof at a party, "If you'd only pull up your dresses about your necks, where they ought to be, they'd be as short as mine." She was not troubled any more.

EQUALITY.—In Mississippi, a military order requires sixty thousand registered white men to pay a poll tax, while it exempts eighty thousand negroes from paying the same. But when it comes to voting, the negro has the same privilege as the white man. And this is republican equality!

ARAB CAUSE FOR DIVORCE.—The Arabs allow a man to divorce himself from a wife who does not make good bread. What a crop of divorces that law would create in America! It would demoralize domestic circles more than the war did.

An old lady gave this as her idea of a great man: "One who is keerful of his clothes, don't drink spirits, kin read the Bible without spelling the words, and eat a cold dinner on wash day without grumbling.

A LINE in one of Moore's songs reads thus: "Our couch shall be roses bespangled with dew." To which a sensible girl replied:—"Twould give me the rheumatiz, and so it would you."

'ALF AND 'ALF.—In Pleasant Valley, Polk county, Iowa, the district school has but nine scholars—four whites, four blacks, and the other half and half—a mulatto. Even game.

Why is a son who objects to his mother's second marriage like an exhausted pedestrian? Because he can't go a step farther.

CHARMING MAN.—A fellow who has a bow and a smile for everybody abroad and beats his wife at home.

CARRIAGE AND WAGON

MANUFACTURER,

Carriages, Buggies, Sulkies, CONCORD-STYLE THOROUGHBRACE

LUMBER WAGONS,

—FROM THE—

BEST EASTERN MATERIAL,

Selected by myself!

All work manufactured at my shop is under my own immediate supervision, and up to the requirements of the times, of the latest style, and the most

APPROVED PATTERNS AND FINISH!

I employ no "foreman," for 30 years' experience in the trade—10 years in the Eastern States, 20 years on the Pacific coast, (including 9 years superintendence of the "Pioneer Carriage Shop," Sacramento,) justifies me in assuming that position. Delegating to none the supervision of my work, I am enabled to Guarantee Satisfaction!

My LARGE and SPACIOUS SHOPS enable me to store large quantities of material, and my

SEASONING FACILITIES,

(the only perfect seasoning apparatus on the coast) enable me to defy competition in quality of seasoned work. For verification of above, one has only to examine my facilities in this line, and compare them with those in other shops. I do not pursue the course adopted by many; on the contrary, I season stock before working, and do not put up green stock in wheels, leaving them to season afterwards. I have and keep on hand a large stock of

OAK and HICKORY SPOKES,

of all sizes and the finest material the market affords. Also a large variety of Elm and Locust Hubs.

Having given the Oak Hub a fair trial, I have become convinced that they are unfit for first-class work. Parties who may favor me with their patronage may be assured that

No green oak hubs will be found in my work!

In this connection I would call particular attention to my NEW STYLE LOCUST HUB, turned from my pattern, and imported expressly for this trade and Found only at my Shop!

Also made to order all kinds of

FARMING IMPLEMENTS!

Plows, Harrows, &c

I have now on hand Harrows of all sizes, with STEEL TEETH, superior to the imported article. In short, I am prepared to fill all orders, from a Wheelbarrow to a Hornet's Nest.

The PAINTING and TRIMMING DEPARTMENT is equal to the best, and particular attention is paid to repairing and trimming old work.

BLACKSMITHING,

In all its branches, is connected with the wood-work, and both are under my supervision.

I have on hand, for sale,

Plow-beams and Handles, Neckyokes, Singletrees, Stretchers, Clevises, Fifth-chains, Lap-Rings, Harrow-Teeth, Etc., Etc.

All kinds of Plow and Wagon repairing done with neatness and dispatch. Determined to adhere to my long-established rule of manufacturing only the Best Work from the Best Stock, and having served my time at the two branches of carriage-work, (wood and iron) enables me to guarantee satisfaction in all cases, and to know, as foreman of my own shop, when work is

WELL DONE.

To those who have heretofore dealt at other shops, and consequently are unacquainted with my work, I would say GIVE ME A CALL and examine my stock and work. Believing that the surest test of the value of my work can be had in the verdict of those who use it, I respectfully refer the public to

The following named Gentlemen who have and now are using Wagons and Buggies of my manufacture: E. Giddings, J. Laugenour, J. Aldrich, Mr. High, H. Rhoades, Mr. Taylor, J. Jones, L. B. Ruggles, Gray & Freeman, J. Garoutte, Fleishman & Kaufman, Ed. Moses, S. & M. Hyman, George Scott, Mr. Ludden, Mr. Olds, Mr. Lusk, Mr. Hurlbut, R. Fritz, J. Lane, Wm. Davidson, and a host of others whose names can be given if required

☞ Thankful for past patronage, I respectfully solicit a continuance of the favor.
